

Brighde-Brigantia

Great Celtic Goddess & Saint

Brighde is the title and name the Celtic people used for Goddess. They brought Her to these Isles in ancient times. Here She was and is given many titles and names, such as the Goddess of Fire, Lady of the Springs and Wells, Mother of the Elements, the Divine Midwife of the Soul, Bride of the Green Mantle, Sun and Moon Goddess, Mary of the Gael, Lady of Avalon, Bride of the Isles; and we call Her Brigantia, Brighid, Bridget, Bridie and Bride.

Brighde-Brigantia is Goddess and Saint and the energy of Her Wheel of Life is tangible through the whole year. In every season, in every element, in every part and phase in our lives, She inspires and transforms us and invites us to remember, reconnect, reclaim ourselves and celebrate Her as Goddess of the Land, Goddess of the Wheel, Goddess within You and in connection with all that is!

Becoming a Priest/ess of Brighde-Brigantia is a personal, transformational journey; discovering and embracing the loving and creative, divine feminine energy in yourself.

The training works with the teachings of the Wheel of Brighde-Brigantia, the four elements and the five archetypes and how you relate to them. She brings the wisdom of those teachings, which can become a natural part of your everyday life.

In the first year (5 weekends) you will embark on a deep healing journey with Brighde-Brigantia, rekindling Her Spark within you and connecting authentically with all Her aspects of life. At the end of this year you will be able to dedicate as Daughter/Son of Brighde of Avalon, confirming your connection with Brighde and Her Land, and your ongoing journey with Her as you enter the Clan of Brighde-Brigantia.

In the second year (5 weekends) you will deepen your understanding of how to work with Brighde-Brigantia's energy for yourself and others, by learning and exploring different outward facing Priest/ess Pathways connected with Brighde. At the end of this year you will be able to initiate as Priestess/Priest of Brighde.

Testimonials:

The Brighde training is a focused, in-depth, creative healing arts course with a great opportunity for personal transformation and supportive sisterhood.

I learned a lot about the various archetypes and aspects of Brighde. I got encouraged to make my own experiences and connections with Her in all Her forms.

Marion's love of Brighid is obvious in all that she does and in her gentle and loving nature. This approach carries students through the challenges of the course.

I have been re-connected with the Land and with the elements of Fire, Water, Earth and Air through wonderful ceremonies at each weekend on the amazing, ancient Land that is Glastonbury.
